THE NEWPORT HISTORICAL SOCIETY Museum and Library

The Newport Historical Society has maintained a library and museum of Newport and Rhode Island history since its incorporation in 1854. For more than 135 years the Society has continued to grow both in membership and in the extent and diversity of its collection.

Society activities include lectures, bus tours, walking tours, and educational outreach programs and special events. The Seventh Day Baptist Meeting House, built in 1729, now attached to the main building, is a treasure of colonial architecture. The library and manuscript collections contain a wealth of information for researchers.

HOURS: The Society's research facilities are open to the public
Tuesday through Friday 9:30 A.M. to 4:30 P.M.
Saturday (September 1 to June 14) 9:30 A.M. to 12 Noon
(June 15 to August 30) 9:30 A.M. to 4:30 P.M.

For information on current exhibits and programs please call (401)-846-0813.

The Museum of Newport History at the Brick Market is coming in September of 1993. It will be an entertaining, multi-dimensional exhibit of over 350 years of Newport history, told through objects, images and paintings, as well as state-of-the-art interactive computers and videos. On display will be examples of Newport's finest colonial furniture, clocks, samplers and manuscripts, as well as artifacts representing all walks of life from Newport's colorful past.

The Wanton-Lyman-Hazard House, 17 Broadway, illustrates the history of Colonial America through the daily life of individual Newporters.

HOURS: June 18 to September 25
Friday & Saturday 10:00 A.M. to 4:00 P.M.
Also in July and August
Thursday 10:00 A.M. to 4:00 P.M.,
Sunday 1:00 P.M. to 4:00 P.M.

The Quaker Meeting House, built in 1699, the oldest religious structure in Newport is open for viewing by appointment.

Newport History solicits original articles on any aspect of Newport County history. All submissions will be considered by the Editorial Committee for publication. Obtain information from the editor at Society headquarters.
